INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this manual is to provide staff members with information on policies and procedures that will help them perform their jobs most effectively. This manual contains the basic policies, practices and procedures of the Greater Piedmont REALTORS®, and is published for information and guidance of the staff member. It is not an employment contract or a substitute.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The Greater Piedmont REALTORS® has classified its employees in consideration of the provisions of the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act.

Greater Piedmont REALTORS® is an equal opportunity employer. It is our policy that all employees and applicants for employment be treated in a non-discriminatory manner.

It is also the policy of Greater Piedmont REALTORS® to provide all employees with a working environment free from all forms of discriminatory treatment. Harassment and intimidation of any kind are strictly prohibited. Employees who believe they are being adversely affected by any discriminatory treatment, should report such conduct immediately. The Employee Grievance Procedure may be used to report and remedy these problems; however, if the employee feels uncomfortable or threatened by reporting the problem, in this manner, the problem should be brought to the attention of the Executive Officer, or current President.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual Harassment on the job is any unwelcome sexually oriented behavior, demand, comment or physical contact, initiated by an individual at the work place, that is a term or condition of employment, a basis for employment decisions, or that interferes with the employee's work or creates a hostile or offensive working environment.

EMPLOYEE CLASSIFICATION

Exempt / Non-exempt Status

"Exempt" employees are those individuals who fill executive, administrative or professional positions, as defined by the Fair Labor Standards Act.

"Non-exempt" employees are those individuals who fill secretarial, clerical or support positions and who do not meet the criteria for exemption from the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Part-time / Full-time Status

Full-time employees are those who are scheduled to work 40 hours per week on a regular basis. Such employees are entitled to the benefits set forth in this manual.

Part-time employees are those scheduled to work less than 40 hours per week and they are not entitled to the benefits set forth herein.

Temporary Personnel

All temporary employees are ineligible for benefits otherwise available to permanent, full-time employees.

PERFORMANCE EVALUATION AND REVIEW

Performance Review

Performance is evaluated on an annual, calendar year, with a formal feedback and review session toward the end of the year. Newly hired staff members will be reviewed, with feedback after 30 days; 90 days; and possibly other reviews at the 180 day-mark in their first year. After that, they will move to the annual review schedule. Performance reviews will be documented in writing and signed by the employee and reviewer.

The basis of the evaluation is the standards of performance as described in the job description. Job descriptions provide a list of checkpoints which identify the major functions and activities that must be accomplished and specific areas of accountability and responsibility.

The Executive Committee will evaluate the executive officer and the executive officer will evaluate the remaining staff. The performance reviews of the staff may be subject to review by the Executive Committee.

Salary

Salaries are reviewed annually after the annual performance evaluations. Review is not synonymous with an increase. Annual salary adjustments are a function of performance, cost of living changes, promotions and current salary. A cost of living increase is a measure used to keep salary ranges and current compensation competitive. Salary adjustments will be made subject to constraints of the budget authorization of the Greater Piedmont REALTORS® Board of Directors.

Salary adjustments, if granted, will take effect the first pay period of January. Staff members hired after January 1 will not receive a salary adjustment with the interim review, but will be eligible for an increase at annual review time.

Disciplinary Action

Greater Piedmont REALTORS® will make reasonable efforts to provide a working environment that is both comfortable and conducive to productivity. While you will be kept informed of your performance through the performance evaluation review, you may also receive other less formal comments regarding your performance from time to time. Performance deemed unsatisfactory by your supervisor will result in disciplinary action. Any violation of the standards of conduct set forth in this manual will result in disciplinary action.

If discipline becomes necessary, any of several steps may be taken to correct or resolve the problem. These steps, arranged in order of their severity, are:

1. Verbal Warning
2. Written Warning
3. Probation
4. Suspension
5. Termination

The decision on which step to take will be made on a case-by-case basis, depending upon the circumstances (such as the nature of the violation or performance problem, its seriousness, frequency, and employee's record). You must understand, however, that discipline, including discharge, shall be determined by the Executive Officer and may be reviewed by the Executive Committee. Discipline of the Executive Officer will be determined by the Executive Committee with the final approval by the Board of Directors.

Verbal Warning

- a. Meet with the employee.
- b. Explain the nature of the violation or the performance problem. Discuss the problem and its resolution with the employee.
- c. Describe the future behavior you will expect of the employee.
- d. Note the date, time, and content of the conversation in writing. File in the employee's file.

Written Warning

- a. The facts involved or the performance problem will be described in detail in written memorandum.
- b. Employee will be asked to sign the memorandum. This will show that the employee has received, acknowledged, and understood the memorandum. It does not mean that the employee agrees with the contents.
- c. Employee will be allowed to make a written response. This will be filed in the employee's file.

Probation

(This will only be used if verbal and written warnings do not result in improved behavior and work performance.)

- a. Memorandum will be sent to employee explaining why they are being put on probation.
- b. Meet with employee and discuss contents of the memorandum.
- c. Employee will sign the memorandum to acknowledge receipt and understanding.
- d. Employee is allowed to make a written response. File in employee's file.

Suspension

Suspension may be used when an incident warrants immediate action. In such a case, an employee may be suspended without pay for a specified period of time, pending investigation of the occurrence.

Termination

Termination may result from failure to improve behavior or serious employee problems, and/or violations of our Personnel Policy.

Employee Grievance Procedure

Any grievance you may have with your job duties and responsibilities, official policy or operating procedures, or with the manner in which you are directed should be brought to the attention of the Executive Officer. If your grievance cannot be satisfactorily resolved between you and the Executive Officer, you should submit your grievance, preferably in writing, to the Executive Committee of the Greater Piedmont REALTORS® Board of Directors.

Confidentiality

Greater Piedmont REALTORS® will keep your salary confidential and will not disclose it to others outside of management unless such disclosure is specifically authorized by you. Staff shall not discuss their salaries with other employees. Your salary is established by the Executive Officer with the review by the Executive Committee upon approval of the budget by the Board of Directors. The Executive Officer's salary will be established by the Executive Committee. All salary adjustments reflected in the annual budget will take effect on January 1 of each year.
